Peoples Clinic Welcomes New Family Practice Physician

Peoples Community Health Clinic (Peoples Clinic) is pleased to welcome new Family Practice physician, Deborah Ralston, MD.

Dr. Ralston earned her medical degree from the University of Iowa College of Medicine in Iowa City, Iowa. She completed her first year residency in family practice at Ventura County Medical Center in Ventura, California. Her second and third year residencies took place at Grant Medical Center in Columbus, Ohio.

Her specific areas of interest include hypertension, diabetes, women's health care from birth control to post-menopausal issues, and caring for immigrant and refugee populations.

Working together with patients to improve their health is Dr. Ralston's first priority. "I love partnering with patients to achieve their ideal health. Our goal together will be to maintain their best health so they can focus their time and energy on enjoying life and achieving their goals!"

You can find Dr. Ralston at Peoples Clinic, 905 Franklin Street in Waterloo. Visit www.peoples-clinic.com or call 319-874-3000 for more information.
